

Your Nomination Form

For the Argos Section of the Sainsbury's Pension Scheme

As a member of the Argos Section of the Sainsbury's Pension Scheme, valuable benefits are payable on your death. These notes give a summary of your death benefits and some of the points you should consider when you complete the form.

If you die after leaving the Scheme a spouse's, civil partner's or dependant's pension may be payable.

If no pension is paid, a refund of contributions may be made.

If you die in retirement, a spouse's, civil partner's or dependant's pension and children's allowances are payable based on your pension before any exchange for cash or reduction for early retirement. If you die within the first five years of retirement with no pension payable to a dependant, a cash lump sum equal to the unpaid balance of those five years' pension payments is payable.
